This Month at...Helensburgh

Hi, we are Sam and Kathrine and currently work with the chaplaincy team at Faslane naval base. We have a coffee shop in Churchill Square which is in the heart of one of the naval married patches.

We are here to be a listening ear to serving personnel and their families. We encourage family members to pop in for a coffee and a chat (and a bacon roll on a Friday), and to sit with other families too, this has helped create some great friendships between families over the years and continues to do so today.

We often pop into chaplaincy on the base for Storybook Waves and standeasy's too. This helps us to meet serving beneficiaries and offer support. Sam and I have both been naval wives at some point and can really empathise with other families and their situations.
